The Silent Threat:

HOW TO SPOT AND PREVENT HEART DISEASE EARLY

Heart disease is one of the leading causes of death worldwide, yet many cases can be prevented or managed with early detection and proactive care. The key to reducing the risk lies in recognizing the early signs, understanding the risk factors, and adopting a heart-healthy lifestyle.

2. Track your Heart Health

- Blood Pressure Measurement: Regularly checking your blood pressure is essential for detecting hypertension.
- Lipid Profile (Cholesterol Test): This test measures the levels of various fats in your blood.
- Blood Glucose Tests: Crucial for detecting diabetes or prediabetes, which significantly raise your heart disease risk.
- Electrocardiogram (ECG or EKG): Measures the electrical activity of your heart and can identify irregularities.

3. Preventive Care

Prevention is always better than treatment, and by adopting heart-healthy habits early. Here are some steps to help protect your heart:

- Eat Healthy: Less fried & salty food.
- Stop Smoking: Your heart will thank you!
- Stay Active: Aim for 30 minutes of exercise most days.
- Limit Alcohol: Too much can raise blood pressure
- Manage your stress well

4. Heart-Healthy Foods

Eating heart-healthy foods is one of the best ways to protect your cardiovascular health. Here are some foods that promote a healthy heart:

- Fatty Fish: Rich in Omega
- Leafy Greens: Protect against heart disease.
- Whole Grains: Lowers bad cholesterol
- Coenzyme Q-10: Powerful antioxidant for heart

1. Check for Warning Signs of Heart Disease

Early detection is crucial for managing and preventing heart disease. Here are some common signs to watch for:

- Chest pain or tightness
- Shortness of breath
- Feeling tired all the time
- Heart palpitations
- Dizziness

FUEL YOUR HEART

ULTIMATE NUTRITION GUIDE FOR CARDIOVASCULAR HEALTH

Fuel your heart

A healthy heart starts with the food we eat daily. By choosing the right nutrients, we can lower the risk of heart disease, manage cholesterol, and support strong blood vessels. Here's a simple guide to heart-friendly foods you can add to your everyday meals.

1. Leafy Greens : Nature's Blood Pressure Manager

Leafy greens like spinach, Chinese kale (kalian), mustard greens (sawi), and bok choy are loaded with vitamin K, folate, and natural nitrates. These nutrients help maintain healthy blood pressure and support smooth blood flow. Vitamin K also supports normal blood clotting.

Although there is no official Malaysian RNI for vitamin K, regularly consuming leafy greens ensures you meet your body's needs. Try mixing ulam-ulaman (local raw greens) into your lunch or adding spinach to your soup.

2. Berries: Small but Mighty

Strawberries, blueberries, and raspberries are rich in antioxidants, especially anthocyanins, which help reduce oxidative stress and inflammation, both linked to heart disease. They're also high in fiber and vitamin C.

According to the Malaysian RNI, adults need 70 mg/day (women) to 90 mg/day (men) of vitamin C. Just a handful of berries can provide more than half of your daily needs.

3. Whole Grains : Fuel with Fiber

Whole grains like oats, brown rice, barley, and whole wheat bread are excellent sources of fiber. Soluble fiber helps lower LDL (bad) cholesterol and promotes stable blood sugar levels.

The RNI for dietary fiber in Malaysia is 20–30 grams per day. Start your day with a bowl of oats or replace white rice with red or brown rice to boost your fiber intake easily.

Your Everyday Heart Tip :

Eating for your heart does not mean giving up your favorite foods. Focus on small but regular portions and incorporate more greens, fruits, and grains in your daily diet. Ultimately, you'll feel the difference. Consistency is the key to long-term heart health.

Heart disease is a food-borne illness.

On 31 May 2025, Mega Kulim Pharmacy, in collaboration with Yukazan, proudly participated in the High 10 Family Jamboree, hosted by High 10 Group at EcoWorld Gallery @ Eco Horizon, Batu Kawan.

It was a heartwarming day filled with health-focused fun, engaging activities, and community bonding. Families came together to enjoy free health tips, exciting giveaways, and meaningful interactions at our booth.

A big thank you to everyone who joined us, we are grateful for your support and look forward to more wellness-driven events that bring families and communities closer together.

Building Healthy Habits. On 19 June 2025, Mega Kulim Pharmacy partnered with Miwakoko for an engaging health education session at SJKC Chio Min Kulim, Kedah.

The session aimed to instill healthy habits in young students through fun and interactive learning. Topics included the importance of a balanced diet, tips on choosing healthier snacks and drinks, and an exciting Q&A session with free gifts. Students also enjoyed nutritious Miwakoko drink samples.

We are proud to support the next generation in making smarter, healthier choices – both in school and at home.

Empowering Wellness and Unity. On 22 June 2025, Mega Kulim Pharmacy proudly joined Jalan Amal Perpaduan Belia 2025 at SEGi College Penang, an impactful initiative uniting communities through education and health awareness.

Our professional team, including a dietitian and nutritionist, provided expert advice on balanced nutrition and healthy living, reinforcing the importance of wellness in everyday life.

We are especially grateful to YB Sim Chee Keong for visiting our booth and supporting the event's powerful message – Perpaduan Melalui Pendidikan (Unity Through Knowledge)

Together for Autism Awareness. On 28 May 2025, Mega Kulim Pharmacy, in collaboration with Revo Healthcare, MyPSA and Autism Cafe Together, hosted a meaningful event to promote autism awareness and inclusivity.

Held at Autism Cafe Shah Alam, the event featured a fun baking session for kids and parents, a health talk on understanding autism, and free basic health screenings for families.

We are proud to support initiatives that foster understanding, acceptance, and opportunities for every child to thrive. Thank you to everyone who joined us in making a difference.
